

APRIL 21-22, 2012

Join us as we commemorate the

150th Anniversary of the Peninsula Campaign

In the spring of 1862, Gen. George B. McClellan's 120,000 man Army of the Potomac set sail down the Chesapeake Bay to find a new route to take Richmond. Instead, McClellan was stopped by Gen. John Magruder's 13,000 man Army of the Peninsula as Confederates under Gen. Joseph Johnston began to arrive. Recreate the beginning of this campaign at historic

Endview Plantation

362 Yorktown Rd.

Newport News, VA 23603

$5 per person registration
$10 per person after April 6th
Children 11 and under free
Mounted cavalry and artillery free

Artillery bounties: $125 for field pieces and $75 for smaller guns (mountain howitzers, etc.)
(Limit 2 US and 2 CS bounties)

Registration forms will be available soon at www.endview.org

Preregistration required for cavalry and artillery for planning purposes

◆ 2 battles on Saturday and 1 on Sunday

◆ Minutes away from the battlefields

Phone: 757-887-1862

E-mail: endview@nngov.com